

OUTREACH ACTIVITIES

Berkshire Education Resource Center

Sponsored jointly by the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Berkshire Music School, this resource library contains reference materials on music, theatre, dance, and visual arts; opera and musical theater scores; classical CDs; and books for children. The general public, educators, and students are encouraged to use this free reference library to check out materials.

Call 413-637-5274 or email dwhite@aol.com to schedule an appointment.

PianoKids®

This fast, interactive method for learning piano in the computer age is a preparatory program for private lessons. Classes are taught in small groups, with four students at their own keyboard and computer. www.pianokids.com

For a free demo lesson and registration, please call 413-637-1168.

*Now I get it!
Michela Laurin in her flute lesson.*

Save The Date For Music Marathon '09

Music Marathon arrives March 27 with a Friday night prelude party, followed by a weekend filled with music from 9 to 6 each day. This important BMS event raises thousands of dollars to support educational programs. Donate anytime by clicking "Ways To Give" on our home page. Thank you!